BRITISH TOY AND HOBBY ASSOCIATION CODE OF PRACTICE

1. I/We agree to manufacture and market only toy and hobby products that conform to appropriate legislation and to exercise due diligence in regard to the safety of my/our products.
2. I/We understand that if I/we wish to use the Association's Lion Mark on or in relation to my/our products, I/we must have entered into and adhered to the Association's current standard form licence to use the Lion Mark (as amended, updated or re-issued by the Association from time to time). Lion Mark licence holders are required by the Association to periodically undergo a systems appraisal to ensure compliance with the terms of the licence.
3. I/We agree to deal promptly with any enquiries as to the safety of my/our products and take effective action where appropriate. The Association must be notified immediately of any allegation by an enforcement authority that my/our products contravene the toy safety regulations.
4. I/We understand that a successful prosecution under appropriate toy safety legislation will be regarded by the Association as a breach of this code and may render me/us liable to investigation under the Association's complaints procedure.
5. I/We declare that I/We will apply appropriate ethical standards in the factories used for the manufacture of my/our toy products and that I/we shall not do anything that would bring the Association into disrepute. 7. I/We undertake that all my/our advertising of toy and hobby products in whatever form is legal, decent, honest and truthful and is in conformity with both the BCAP Code (The UK Code of Broadcast Advertising), the CAP Code (UK Code of Non-broadcast Advertising, Sales Promotion and Direct Marketing) and the Advertising Association's Principle on 'Under 16s Peer to Peer Marketing';

"young people under the age of 16 should not be employed and directly or indirectly paid or paid-in-kind to actively promote brands, products, goods, services, causes or ideas to their peers, associates or friends"

Where a particular form of advertising or marketing is not covered by existing codes, I/we shall apply the spirit of those existing codes to that form of advertising or marketing. In addition, I/we shall work towards compliance with the Association's guidelines for communications with children across all media (as amended, updated or re-issued from time to time).

BEST PRACTICE PRINCIPLE ON THE USE OF UNDER 16s IN BRAND AMBASSADOR AND PEER-TO-PEER MARKETING

Purpose

To ensure that marketing to children and involving children continues to be conducted responsibly and to address recommendation 8 in the Bailey Report "Letting Children be Children" regarding the employment of children for marketing purposes.

The Principle

Young people under the age of 16 should not be employed and directly or indirectly paid or paid-in-kind to actively promote brands, products, goods, services, causes or ideas to their peers, associates or friends.

Exceptions

Child Performers:

In accordance with EU and UK law, under-16s may be employed to appear in advertisements with local authority permission.

Sponsorship:

Exceptionally talented and high-profile young people in sports and entertainment may be contracted by companies to use the companies' brands, products, goods and services. In those unusual circumstances, direct presentation or promotion to their peers, friends or associates by the young person should not be required or expected.

Application

The principle is not intended to apply to every instance in which a child is involved in promotional or presentational marketing activity. It applies only to marketing activity which commercialises a child's relationships with peers, associates or friends through employment involving payment or payment-in-kind in exchange for active promotion of a brand, product, good, service, cause or idea.

"Payment or payment-in-kind" is any reward with a commercial value, including money, goods or services.

All marketing communications must also comply with the Advertising Codes and with relevant EU and UK law.

Consent

In any circumstance where a person under 16 is employed to promote a brand, product, good, service, cause or idea, the consent of a responsible adult is required.
